

Please delay your decision in this matter for at least 90 days. And please engage in greater outreach efforts to inform the general public about this most important matter. Concentration of media ownership in the hands of a select few companies would be not only anticompetitive in a purely economic sense but also inconsistent with Freedom of Speech as envisioned by the Founders. It is the FCC's public duty to foster diverse and energetic political free speech in order to foster free competition among ideas themselves.